

LONG ITCHINGTON COMMUNITY CENTRE: 100 CLUB LOTTERY

Aims of the 100 Club

The Long Itchington Community Centre is currently thriving – with regular bookings and activities by the Brownies, Youth Club, WI, History Group, Toddlers Club, T'Chai, Film Night, etc., as well as bookings for private parties. We endeavour to keep booking charges as low as possible, so the Community Centre accumulates only a very small surplus each year. From time to time your committee undertakes expenditures on capital projects – e.g. upgrading the kitchen (it is now a very high standard, modern facility), refurbished toilets, cavity wall and roofing insulation, decorating, and purchasing equipment for projection and display, a sound system etc. In common with many other village halls nationwide, we have set up a 100 Club lottery to raise funds for future capital projects.

Each member pays a monthly subscription of just £1 per number to enter a monthly draw. Members are asked to pay their subscriptions annually in advance (i.e. £12 for twelve draws) by cash or cheque. The 100 Club pays out at least 50% of the revenue as prize money; the remaining 50% is retained towards the capital fund. The Club will be limited to 200 members. With 100+ members there will be at least three monthly cash prizes. In 2015 there are five monthly prizes (including a first prize of £50) plus a Super Draw in December (£100 prize).
